Allconnect Announces Continued Increases In Revenue, Earnings and Customers in Second Quarter

ATLANTA, July 28, 2009 -- Allconnect, Inc. – the leading comparison shopping and connections marketplace for essential home services – reported record revenues and earnings in the second quarter. Highlights included a 23% increase in second quarter revenue over last year, a 30% increase in customer traffic to its service centers and web site and a record increase in earnings. The company, which has been privately held since its founding in 1998, is based in Atlanta.

Allconnect has built integrated relationships with all major providers of household services including home phone, cable TV, digital and satellite TV, high speed Internet and home security systems. This one-stop shop gives consumers total transparency across all service categories and the utmost flexibility to compare options and price before making the purchasing decisions that best meet their needs. The service is free and comes with a lowest available price guarantee.

"Our business continues to grow because we provide a free service that allows people to save money without compromising quality," said Allconnect Chairman and CEO Mark Miller. "We've helped millions of customers and, in the process, have become a multi-billion dollar marketplace for home services. With our size and expertise, we are able to deliver special promotions and a superior consumer experience."

Miller also announced that the company is continuing to increase the number of employees in its Atlanta, GA, and St. George, UT, sales centers. The company hired 120 new Home Services Consultants in May and June of 2009 and is adding another 20 in July.
