Allconnect Employee Serving in Afghanistan Receives Military Honor

ATLANTA, January 14, 2010 – Captain Joshua Lasley, currently serving in Afghanistan, has been awarded the Bronze Medallion and knighted into the Order of St. George by the U.S. Armor Association during a ceremony at Forward Operating Base Hughie in Jalabad, Afghanistan, on January 1. Lasley is a resident of Marietta, Georgia, and has been an employee of Atlanta-based Allconnect, Inc., since 2002.

Since 1986, the United States Armor Association has been honoring outstanding tankers or armored cavalymen by awarding the Bronze Medallion through the Order of St. George. To qualify for this award, soldiers must be recognized as the very best at what they do. The Association, which grew out of the U.S. Calvary Association in 1885, is a non-profit organization with more than 4,000 members dedicated to disseminating knowledge of the military art and sciences, with an emphasis on mobility in ground warfare.

Lasley, who was deployed to Afghanistan in March 2009, has served in the Army National Guard for 20 years. His previous deployment was in 2005-2006 where he served in Mahmudiyah, Iraq. In between deployments, he is an Implementation Manager for Allconnect, the leading provider for connecting consumers with household services.

"Everyone at Allconnect is extremely proud of Josh and we congratulate him on this recent honor," said Mark Miller, Allconnect CEO. "During his deployments, we've supported him by sending several care packages. Most importantly, we look forward to welcoming him safely back home."
