Allconnect Reports Increases in Revenue, Earnings, and Customers for Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2009

ATLANTA, March 04, 2010 -- In the fourth quarter of 2009, Allconnect's revenue increased a record 51% over the previous year and online customer traffic more than doubled.

"2009 was a watershed year for Allconnect. Through our partnership with dozens of utilities and our website, we helped 30% more customers connect, transfer, or compare their home services, ensuring that they have the right plan for the best price." said Allconnect CEO Mark Miller. "Our strong growth is allowing us to invest extensively in the technology being used by our Home Service Consultants. We track up to the minute prices, plans, and promotions giving the customer an opportunity to make the best possible choices based on their needs and budget."

Other highlights during fourth quarter include:

The release of ConnectMyBuyer.com, an online portal for Realtors that allows them to provide a customized service for their home buyers.

The opening of a fourth sales center in Danville, VA.

The company's social media efforts also expanded with the debut of a Home Utilities Blog that strengthens the consumer relationship and complements Allconnect's presence on Twitter and Facebook.
