Allconnect Customers Support Special Olympics Georgia When Ordering Online

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, March 10, 2010 – Customers who order or transfer their home services using Allconnect, Inc., are finding more than convenience, choice, and the best price. Throughout 2010, Allconnect is donating $1 to Special Olympics Georgia (SOGA) for every order placed at www.allconnect.com.

The $1 donation is made when a Georgia customer orders or transfers home services, including satellite TV, cable TV, Internet, phone, home security systems, natural gas and electricity, through Allconnect's free one-stop online resource.

This fundraising effort is in addition to Allconnect's ongoing sponsorship of Special Olympics Georgia and volunteer efforts of employees. Allconnect employees volunteered at the State Indoor Winter Games in January, assisting athletes at the craft tables in between athletic events. They will also be participating at SOGA's fundraiser, Race for Champions Annual 5K Fun Run on May 22, as well as the Duck Derby fundraiser on June 25.

"Having a donation made each time an online order is placed is an easy, free way for customers to support Special Olympics Georgia," said Mark Miller, Allconnect CEO. "Special Olympics is one of the most respected sports organizations in the world. It's inspiring to watch these athletes overcome challenges and excel. We are proud to support them through donations and volunteering."
