Increases In Allconnect Revenue, Earnings, and Customers Accelerate Again in Third Quarter

ATLANTA, November x, 2009 -- Allconnect, Inc. – the leading comparison shopping and connections marketplace for essential home services – reported another record quarter of earnings, customer and revenue growth. Highlights included a 42% increase in third quarter revenue over last year and a 34% increase in customer traffic. The company, which has been privately held since being founded in 1998, is based in Atlanta.

Allconnect has built integrated relationships with all major providers of household services including high speed Internet, phone, cable TV, satellite TV, and home security systems. This one-stop shop gives consumers total transparency across all service categories and the utmost flexibility to compare options and price before making the purchasing decisions that best meet their needs. The service is free and comes with a lowest available price guarantee.

"More and more customers are seeing the value Allconnect offers. When transferring or comparing home services, there is not an easier way to save both time and money," said Allconnect Chairman and CEO Mark Miller. "We've invested extensively in Home Service Advisors and systems that constantly scan the entire market so we can offer choice and pricing across all providers. This translates into more informed consumers empowered to make better purchasing decisions."

Other highlights during third quarter include signing agreements with three NiSource subsidiaries: Northern Indiana Public Service Company, Northern Indiana Fuel and Light, and Kokomo Gas and Fuel. With its increase in customers and partners, Allconnect's marketplace has grown annual sales to more than $3 billion in home service products, representing 13,000 SKUs from over 200 service providers.
