

Cyberbullying and online dangers

What is CYBERBULLYING?

- Cyberbullying is when someone uses digital devices to harass or harm others.
- It's important to recognize it and know why it's harmful.

Signs your child is being cyberbullied

- Be aware of signs like sudden changes in behavior, sadness or avoidance of the phone or computer.
- Keep an open line of communication with your child so they feel safe sharing their experiences.

What are other dangers children can encounter online?

Online predators

People who may try to trick or harm children online.

Scams

Deceptive schemes aiming to steal personal information or money.

Inappropriate content

Images, videos, or text that is not suitable for kids.

Dealing with cyberbullying

Speak up and report

- Teach your child how to report any unpleasant online incidents to the platform and to you.
- Keep tabs and evidence of the situation if necessary.

Together we stand

- If cyberbullying persists, involve school authorities or law enforcement if needed.
- Offer unwavering support to your child during this challenging time and face the digital world together.

HOT TIP:

Remember, nurturing open communication and being an empathetic guide are your greatest allies in the realm of mobile safety. Stay informed, stay connected and let's make the internet a safer, happier place for our kids!